

Introducing *Romper's Doula Diaries

New York, NY — September 13, 2017— Romper, the leading website for millennial moms, today debuts the first episode of Romper's Doula Diaries, its first original video series. The series follows four doulas in NYC and Philadelphia, as their clients are days away from their births. The groundbreaking series ignites new dialogue around childbirth while debunking misconceptions and fears, and increases awareness of how critical doulas can be alongside OBGYNs and Midwives for women who choose them.

The first season of Romper's Doula Diaries will consist of four eight-minute episodes airing biweekly on Wednesdays, each containing a new doula/mother narrative across all socio-economic backgrounds. The series is now available on Facebook and the Bustle apps across Apple TV, Roku, and Amazon Fire TV.

Check out the debut episode:

<https://www.facebook.com/Romperdotcom/videos/840534102791367/>

For more on Romper's Doula Diaries, visit:

<https://www.romper.com/p/watch-this-doula-spontaneously-deliver-a-baby-in-her-clients-apartment-2335484>